BETA THETA PI

Participation in almost all phases of campus activity was the theme of Beta Theta Pi this year. Fraternity members earned several of the top scholastic campus honors, with the most important being the Interfraternity scholarship trophy. The Betas have won this honor for seven consecutive semesters.

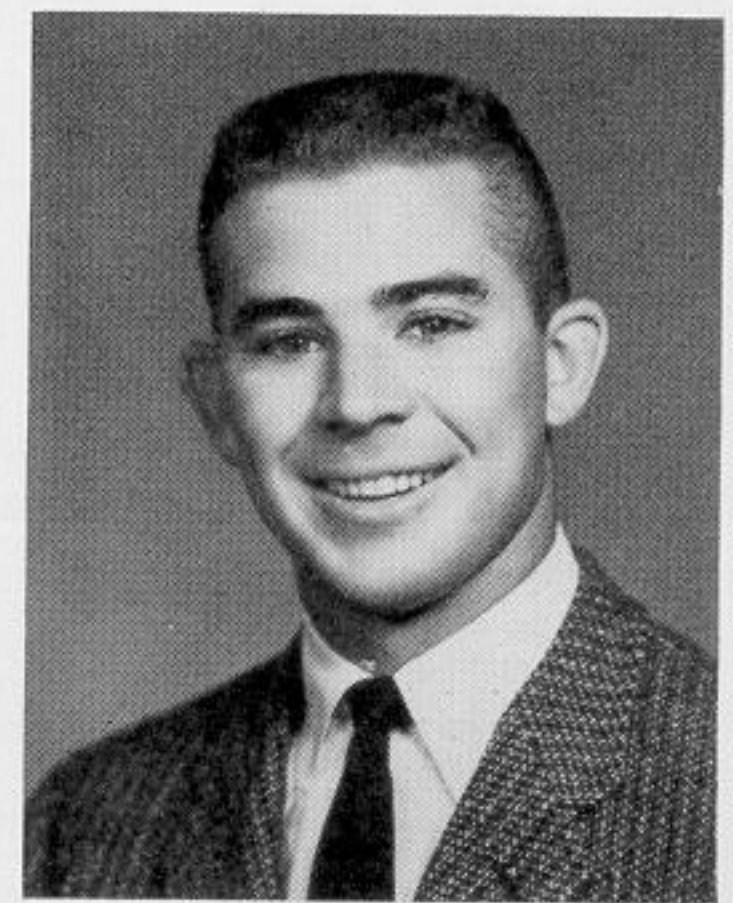

Six members were chosen for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, while another six were selected for Omicron Delta Kappa, outstanding junior and senior mens organization.

Another feather in the Beta's cap was placing second in men's class A division in the Homecoming house decoration. The fraternity also did well with the Beta group act entered in Sooner Scandals.

Outstanding campus leaders include Ted McCarter, selected for Who's Who, BMOC, Student Senate, Beta Gamma Sigma, ODK, Finance club, Sooner Yearbook staff and Scabbard and Blade; Bob Webber, president of IRC and Phi Eta Sigma, co-chairman of COR, member of YMCA, Pe-et and ODK.

Others active in campus events are Steve Beckman, president of Student Senate, Pe-et and ODK, and member of UAB and Beta Gamma Sigma, selected for Who's Who, BMOC and recipient of the Dad's Day award; Jerry Fronterhouse, member of Tau Beta Pi, Sigma Tau, Pi Epsilon Tau, ODK, Pe-et, BMOC, St. Pat's council and Phi Eta Sigma.

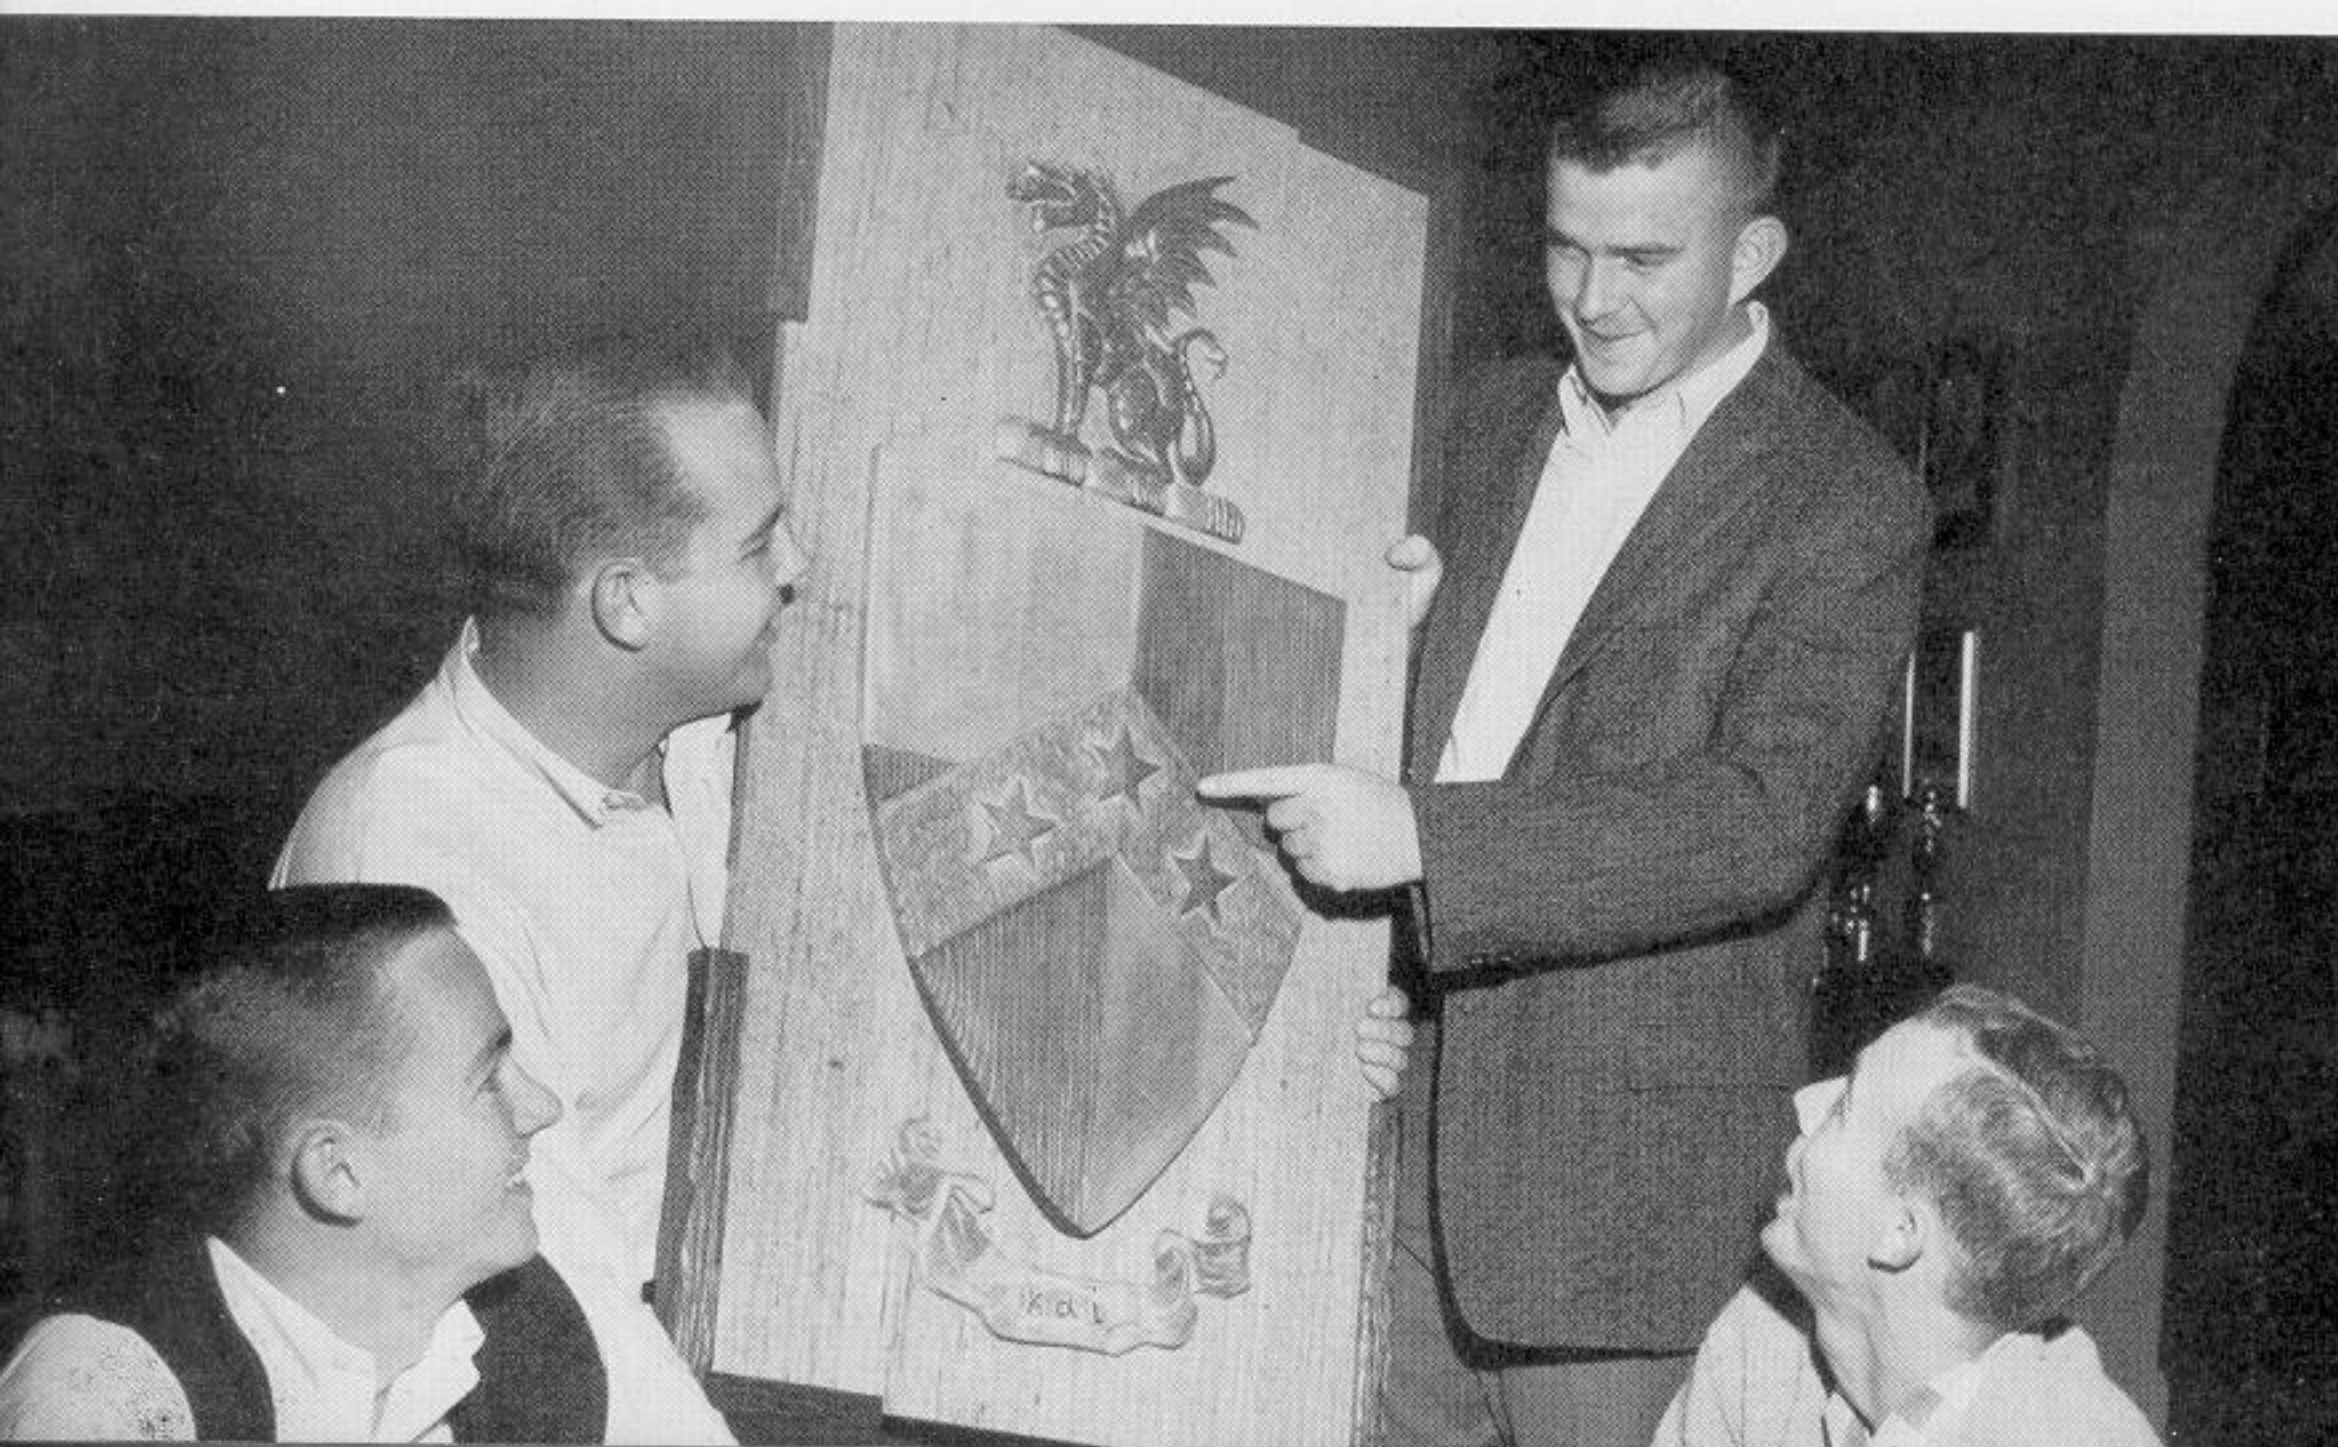

Gamma Phi chapter of Beta fraternity celebrated its 50th anniversary this year. The chapter was founded on the OU campus in 1907. The social calendar also included a barn dance, senior dinner-dance, spring formal and pledge formal.
