

Individual excellence

BETAS ACKNOWLEDGE INDIVIDUALS

B
Θ
Π

Though fraternities stressed brotherhood and teamwork, members of Beta Theta Pi were proud and quick to acknowledge outstanding individual efforts during the year. A combination of individual achievements and successful team effort allowed Beta Theta Pi to experience another prominent year in campus honors and intramurals.

Outstanding individuals included Doug Fellrath, who served as Inter-Fraternity Council President and Rick Johannes, who acted as chair of Congressional Administration. Other Betas recognized as campus leaders included Scot Sullivan, Burt Lampl, Chris Poynor, Jim Wetwiska and Mike Bertman.

When campus honors were awarded Betas were also highly visible. Dave Hughes and Fellrath both received distinguished Top Ten Greek Man distinctions. Hughes, Fellrath, Sullivan, Johannes and Lampl were all recognized as Big Men on Campus, another highly respected honor.

Pillars, an honorary organization Inter-Fraternity founded this year included Beta members Johannes, Sullivan, Hughes, Fellrath, Bo Harrison and Cam

Williams.

The thrill of competition was also very important to the men of Beta Theta Pi, and intramural sports gave fraternities the chance to test each others skills. The Betas excelled in intramurals and again captured the wrestling trophy—which the fraternity had won twice as many times as all other fraternities combined.

After the honors were totaled, Betas still found time to live up to their work-hard, play-hard reputation.

Beta social functions started off with the Sept. 6 Victory Party, following the defeat of UCLA, which included entertainment by Jimmy Swat. October 11 found the Betas in Dallas celebrating OU-Texas Weekend with the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

November brought the traditional two-day Beta Barn Dance function, the fraternity's biggest party of the year. For this event, pledges were in charge of constructing a barn that served as a stage for various entertainment acts, including the Bowley and Wilson comedy team from Dallas.

Gamma Phi Chapter

Nickname: Beta

Founded: 1839

Place: University of Miami at Ohio

Colors: Pink and Blue

Flower: Red Rose

Symbol: Dragon

GOOD OLE BOYS Dressed in country and western styles, members of Beta Theta Pi celebrate during their annual Barn Dance party.

STICKING TOGETHER Members of Beta Theta Pi rally together during Monmouth Duo a party co-sponsored by the women of Kappa Kappa Gamma and the women of Pi Beta Phi.

LAYING IT ALL ON THE TABLE Members of Beta Theta Pi and their dates celebrate during OU/Texas weekend; the men of Sigma Alpha Epsilon co-sponsored the event.

BOYS' NIGHT OUT Members of Beta Theta Pi, dressed in formal attire, gather together to celebrate during their Senior Dinner held in December.